The season of Easter concludes with the feast of Pentecost. The Holy Spirit descended upon the apostles gathered in the upper room in Jerusalem; this event marks the beginning of the Church. Pentecost is when Jesus gave the gift of the Holy Spirit to his disciples. Jesus fulfilled his promise to send to his disciples a helper, an Advocate, who would enable them to be his witnesses throughout the world.

In the context of the feast of Pentecost, John 20:19-23 reminds us about the integral connection between the gifts of peace and forgiveness and the action of the Holy Spirit. Jesus greets his disciples with the gift of peace. Jesus then commissions his disciples to continue the work that he has begun: "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." He breathes the Holy Spirit upon the disciples and sends them to continue his work of reconciliation through the forgiveness of sins. Jesus' act of breathing the Holy Spirit upon the apostles mirrors God's act of breathing life into Adam. Both the Greek and Hebrew words for "spirit" can also be translated as "breath." The Gospel reminds us that the Church is called to be a reconciling presence in the world. The reconciling presence of Christ is celebrated in the Church's sacramental life. In Baptism, we are cleansed of sin and become a new creation in Christ. The Sacrament of Penance, is the mercy of God through the forgiveness of sins. This reconciling presence is also to be a way of life for Christians. In situations of conflict, we are to be agents of peace and harmony among people. Loyolapress.com

I Said A Prayer For You Today
I said a prayer for you today
And I know God must have heard.
I felt the answer in my heart,
Although He spoke no word.
I didn't ask for wealth or fame
I knew you wouldn't mind.
I asked Him to send treasures
Of a far more lasting kind.
I asked that He be near you
At the start of each new day
To grant you health and blessings
And friends to share your way.
I asked for happiness for you in all things great and small,
But it was for His loving care
I prayed the most of all. Unknown author

Do not abandon yourselves to despair. We are the

Come, Holy Spirit, Fill the hearts of Your faithful
And kindle in us the fire of Your love.
Send forth Your Spirit
and we shall be created.
And You shall renew the face of the earth.

O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit
we may be truly wise and ever enjoy Your consolations.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
