Thank you for your Generosity!

Stepping away from our normal routine helps us go to a deeper place with the Lord. Often, these days of quiet help us realize just how noisy the "deep places" of our hearts and minds really are. We may find ourselves face-to-face with the dull noise of a nagging worry, distrust, or insecurity. We can mute this noise in our day-to-day lives, but that does not stop it from eating away at the peace, freedom, and joy that God wants to give us.

Are you aware of this "background noise" in your life? How often do you let it surface? When was the last time you brought it to Jesus and asked him to look at it with you?

Consider giving Jesus a week, a weekend, or a day this summer and letting him speak to you. —a few pages a day from a good catholic book can help you slow down, reconnect with God, and live in his presence more intentionally throughout the summer.

In Christ, Daughters of St. Paul

Prayer for Illumination

Be still and know that God is here.
Be still and know that God is near.
Be still and know that God is here.
