Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati: He said that just as Jesus visited him every day in the Eucharist, he wanted to return the favor by visiting Jesus in the poor. From In Caelo et in Terra: 365 Days with the Saints

Enthusiastically embracing a life of service, Pier Giorgio reminds us that the Eucharist is not a sacrament we passively receive but an invitation to a profound relationship with God and others that redefines the ways we give and receive love. Jesus gives us himself in the Eucharist. As followers of Jesus, we "return the favor" whenever we give our time, resources, and attention to others, recognizing that what we do for them, we do for the Lord (see Matthew 25:40). We can cultivate Eucharistic love in our families and communities in simple but profound ways, simply by being as present to someone as we would want to be with Jesus in the ways we listen to them, speak with them, and greet them.
In Christ, Daughters of St. Paul

When the apostles were trying to reflect on their ministry, Jesus asked them to "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." Listening to God in quiet prayer is very important in vocation discernment. Listen to God's voice in an out-of-the-way place. If you feel the call is genuine, call Fr. Mark Morley, Director of Vocations, Diocese of Hamilton at 905-528-7988.

"A Joke" As it appears in the bulletin from Sacred Heart, Paris.

A couple of weeks after hearing a homily about lies and deceit, a man wrote the following letter to the tax department in Ottawa: "I have been unable to sleep, knowing that I have cheated on my income tax. I understated my taxable income, and have enclosed a cheque for $150. If I still can't sleep, I will send the rest."

St. Vincent de Paul—St. Gregory Conference of St. Vincent de Paul will be closing if we do not enlist new volunteers. If you are interested in more information, please call the office at 519-623-3111.

Marian Residence Retirement Home in Hespeler. The Retirement Home is currently looking for volunteers to assist in the activity department (with Bingo, exercises, music fun, games, etc.). And the apostles gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught. And he said unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

Mark 6:30-31
